Legal limits on Child death claim payments

There are laws about how much we can pay for death claim payments for any life under the age of 14 across policies.

We will apply these limits. These limits are:

- We can pay out to a maximum of R20 000 before a child's 6th birthday; and
- We can pay out to a maximum of R50 000 when a child is between their 6th and 14th birthday.

Limits on payment of cover amounts

In addition to the limits imposed in the policy, there are laws about how much we can pay as a cover amount in respect of a life assured. We may never exceed this amount for you in terms of this policy.

In terms of the policy, the following cover limits will apply: The maximum cover amount that any one life assured will have is as follows:

- R100 000 for the principal life assured and spouse covered in terms of the spouse category.
- R50 000 for a parent and wider family members.
