Wealth

Sanlam offers benefits to cover you and your family in the event of death. It is important for you to maintain your policy so that you can stay in control of your financial resilience journey. Here are some tips to help you stay on track.

1 Make sure you choose the right plan

Choose a plan and benefits that you and your family need and can afford.

4 Make regular payments

Maintain your policy by making regular monthly payments.

2 Give us the correct information

Make sure that you give us the correct information like postal and email addresses, contact details, identity numbers or date of birth, and beneficiary details. If we do not have the correct information we cannot communicate with you and payment of your cover amount may be delayed.

3 Choose beneficiaries

Let us know of any changes to your personal information or if there is a change to who the beneficiaries are so that we can pay the cover amount to the right people.

5 Review your plan

Check your plan and benefits regularly to make sure you and your family are still sufficiently covered.

How the Value Funeral Plan works

FUNERAL COVER

Provides individual cover for you, your spouse, your children, parents and wider family members, and a separate premium is payable for each person.

- ✓ We will pay if:
- The death of any covered person is by accident from the day cover starts. The death must occur within 14 days of the date of the accident.
 - A life assured dies, where such person is not subject to a qualifying period.
 - Claims for a stillbirth that happens in respect of you or your spouse after the end of the 28th week of pregnancy.

- ✗ We will not pay if:
- If a life assured dies and such person is still subject to a waiting period.

POLICY BREAK

Keeps your policy active for up to 12 months if you need a premium payment break for any reason.

- ✓ We will:
- Keep your policy active for up to 12 months without you paying monthly premiums if you apply for a policy break.
 - Allow this break once during the lifetime of the policy.
- ✗ We will not:
- Pay any cover amounts if an insured event happens during the policy break.

PREMIUM PAID-UP

When the life assured reaches a certain age.

- ✓ We will keep your policy active:
- For you, your spouse or your children when you, your spouse or your children reach the age of 75.
 - For parents or wider family members when parents or wider family members reach the age of 85.
 - Provided you have paid premiums for at least 15 years in a row for such persons.

- ✗ We will not:
- Allow cover increases on the policy within 5 years before the Premium Paid-Up starts and while it is active.
 - Allow new lives to be added when the Premium Paid-Up is active.

ESCALATIONS

This helps you keep up with the rising costs of living by increasing your premium and cover. After the start of the policy, you can change your premium and cover increases. You can also change or stop the increases anytime by giving Sanlam notice.

Name of Policyholder:

EXCLUSIONS FOR ALL BENEFITS

Sanlam will not pay any cover amounts if the insured event happened as a direct or indirect result of active participation in war, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostilities, illegal strikes, warlike operations (whether war is declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, civil commotion assuming the proportions of or amounting to an uprising or riot, military or usurped power.

WHY THE SANLAM VALUE FUNERAL PLAN

Pays most claims in 4 hours

Minimum premium of R80 a month

Children are covered for life, including adopted children

Up to R100 000 cover for principal life assured and spouse

Cover for up to 22 people on your policy

Entry age limit of 85 years for parents and wider family

Qualifying periods

A qualifying period, also known as a waiting period, is:

- When the policy is in force and the cover has started, but the cover amounts will not be paid yet.
- Calculated from the date on which cover in respect of a life assured starts.
- Not applied to accidental death, if the death occurs within 14 days of the date of the accident.

A qualifying period of 6 months or less may apply for all other causes except where you completed or partially completed a qualifying period under another similar funeral policy. The conditions in the policy must be carefully considered.

Waiving of qualifying period

If you can confirm that you had previous cover with Sanlam or another registered / licensed insurer, the length of time of the qualifying period will be reduced by the amount of time served at the previous insurer.

The qualifying period will be waived in the following instances:

- If you had cover with a registered / licensed insurer for a period of 31 days before entering into the policy with Sanlam;
- If the type of cover at the previous insurer was similar to the cover type taken in the new policy;
- If the policy benefits under the previous policy provided cover in respect of similar risks relating to the same lives assured as those under the new policy; and
- If the qualifying period in respect of the previous cover was completed, if not, the balance will be completed under the new policy.

In order for Sanlam to consider and apply the correct qualifying period to you, it is your obligation to provide the following confirmation of any previous funeral policies, as well as any documents we may request:

- Name of previous insurer;
- Policy number/s; and
- Personal details of lives assured (name, date of birth and relationship to you).

Replacement question

Important note: replacement of any insurance may be to the disadvantage of the client. Is this proposal to replace the whole or any part of your existing insurance with any insurer (whether replacement is to occur immediately or to replace an insurance discontinued within the past four months or within the next four months)? Please indicate your submission on the line as a YES or NO.

If "Yes" the representative must discuss and complete the Replacement Policy Advice Record and attach it to this proposal form.

Declaration by the intermediary
I hereby declare that I have requested and recorded the client's responses to the questions (Annexure 1A) with regard to replacement and that the client is fully aware of the possible detrimental consequences of the replacement of an insurance policy.
I further declare that, irrespective of the client's response to the question in Annexure 1A, I explained the following to the client:

- The meaning of replacement
- That a replacement is potentially prejudicial
- The levying/deduction of a termination charge and
- That where a replacement is considered, the client is legally entitled to comprehensive information regarding the consequences of replacement.

The appointment of a beneficiary younger than 18 years old may slow down the payment of a claim.)

Legal limits on Child death claim payments

There are laws about how much we can pay for death claim payments for any life under the age of 14 across policies.

We will apply these limits. These limits are:

- We can pay out to a maximum of R20 000 before a child's 6th birthday; and
- We can pay out to a maximum of R50 000 when a child is between their 6th and 14th birthday.

Limits on payment of cover amounts

In addition to the limits imposed in the policy, there are laws about how much we can pay as a cover amount in respect of a life assured. We may never exceed this amount for you in terms of this policy.

In terms of the policy, the following cover limits will apply: The maximum cover amount that any one life assured will have is as follows:

- R100 000 for the principal life assured and spouse covered in terms of the spouse category.
- R50 000 for a parent and wider family members.

4 Claims notification	Claims must be notified to the Insurer on the approved form together with all relevant supporting documentation.
5 Name and type of policy	The name of your policy will be shown on your policy schedule. It is an individual life policy that provides funeral and other benefits to the policyholder, your spouse, up to 4 parents, up to 8 children and 8 wider family members which may include any additional spouses or children.
6 Cover	Cover start - Your policy will start the day after your application is accepted by us and as will be shown in the policy schedule. Cover for an additional life assured or an increase or decrease in cover for existing life assureds, will take effect on the first day of the month in which the new premium becomes payable as shown in the policy schedule. Cover ends of the first of: • when the policy ends; • The person is removed from the policy. The funeral cover pays out on the death of the life assured. No cover will be provided to any life assured if living permanently in a foreign country, or if such life assured is absent from South Africa for a consecutive period exceeding 6 months. The policy provides cover to South Africans or South African residents or persons that can provide: • Proof of residency (provided by Department of Home Affairs); • Proof of citizenship and copy of bar coded ID (provided by Department of Home Affairs for Foreigners); or • Permanent working permits with a copy of the life assured's Passport.
7 Nature and extent of benefits	The benefits you have will be listed in the policy schedule and an explanation of how these benefits work will be in your policy document. We will send these documents to the postal address you have given us within 31 days from the day your policy is accepted.
8 Fees and charges	Policy fee: There is no policy fee.
9 Premiums	The premium paid will be confirmed in the policy schedule. Failure to pay premiums may result in the policy stopping. The premium will be included in the policy schedule, and will be payable monthly on the due date of such premium as indicated in the policy schedule. The premiums payable will be subject to escalations (as set out below) and a right of review by the insurer to ensure that the premiums and the cover amounts remain actuarially sound. You may also apply for a premium payment break in terms of the policy. Failure to pay premiums (other than in terms of the policy break) may result in the policy lapsing.
10 Special terms	The benefits provided by this policy may be subject to qualifying periods and exclusions. Where these apply they are described in the policy document.
11 Escalations	The policyholder must choose a rate at which the premium and monetary benefits will increase every year. This increase will take place at the anniversary of the issue date every year. You may ask us to stop or start the escalations again at any time after the signature date.
12 Monetary terms	Premiums and cover amounts are paid in ZAR.
13 Relevant assumptions made	The policy will be issued on the assumption that all the information provided on the Application Form is correct.
14 Remuneration / commission	This policy is sold by an adviser who may either earn a fixed salary and sales volume related bonuses or commission. The regulated commission that is allowed on this policy will be communicated to you on your policy schedule.
15 Right to Cancel / Cooling-off period	The Policyholder has the right to cancel this policy within 60 days from the signature date and receive back all the premiums paid (without interest and less the portion of premiums for the period the lives assured were covered), if you have not claimed for or we have not paid a benefit or if an insured event has not yet happened. The Policyholder may cancel the policy at any time by giving notice to the Insurer. The Insurer may cancel the policy at any time without any reason by giving notice as required by law to the Policyholder. Remember that cancellation normally leads to loss of valuable benefits and should be avoided where possible.
16 Replacement	In the event that this is a replacement of an existing policy, this may have negative consequences for the policyholder. Replacement of any insurance nearly always involves duplication of initial costs and charges to the policyholder.
17 Representations made that are material to the risk	The Insurer reserves the right to defer or decline a claim on any life assured covered by this policy should the Insurer find any information material to the risk provided on the application to be false or incomplete. The insurer may, if there is evidence of or attempted submission of a fictional claim, fraud or a misrepresentation that is material to the risk (or the insurer's assessment of the risk) choose to cancel the policy with immediate effect and declare all premiums that you have paid as lost. Material information include at least: • the age of the life assured • the confirmation of existence of a previous policy; and • the relationship between you and lives assured
18 Claim events	Cover amounts are payable in the event of the death and any other benefits of a life covered by this Policy.
